International World of Vacations Extends Agreement with Kibby Raynor Productions

June 19, 2006 – International World of Vacations (IWW) has reached a three-year extended agreement with Kibby Raynor Productions in November of 2006, which will total expand the working relationship to more than eight years.

The initial agreement was reached in October 2001 to produce IWW's promotional video, training video and television commercials. Since the initial agreement, many items have been produced including the International World of Vacations promotional video in 2002 shot in West Palm Beach. This promotional video was then successfully updated and completed with the Company's custom song inserted in November 2003.

With this new agreement, Kibby Raynor Productions has agreed to produce corporate, research, documentary, sales, training and motivational videos plus commercials and broadcast features on an as needed basis for IWW.
